This Agreement shall commence on the 19 day of AUGUST 2026.

The Parties may renew or extend this Agreement for further storage periods upon such terms and conditions as they may mutually agree on in writing. Renewal shall

2. This Agreement shall be the primary and binding instrument regulating the rights, obligations and liabilities of the Parties throughout the subsistence of the storage relationship.

3. Each Party acknowledges that it has carefully read and understood this Agreement before executing it, and agrees to be legally bound by all of its provisions.

4. If any provision of this Agreement is held by a court or other competent authority to be unlawful, invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall, to the extent of its invalidity or unenforceability, be severed from this Agreement without affecting the validity, legality or enforceability of the remaining provisions, all of which shall continue in full force and effect.

3. Payment
All storage charges and other applicable fees shall be payable in advance unless otherwise agreed in writing by SKN.

The Depositor shall remain liable for all charges accruing under this Agreement until the Goods are lawfully released or otherwise disposed of in accordance with this Agreement.

4. Renewal of Storage
Where the Parties agree to renew the storage period and the Depositor pays the applicable renewal charges, a new storage term shall commence immediately.

5. Late Payment and Default Charges
Where the Depositor fails to renew this Agreement or fails to pay the applicable storage charges on or before the due date while the Goods remain in the custody of SKN, the outstanding amount shall attract a default charge equivalent to ten per cent (10%) of the applicable monthly storage fee for every week or part thereof during which the default continues, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies available to SKN under this Agreement.

6. No Refund Policy
A.ll payments made by the Depositor shall be final and non-refundable once the agreed services have been rendered or made available by SKN.

The Depositor shall not be entitled to any refund merely because the Goods are withdrawn before the expiration of the paid storage period.

4. HANDLING SERVICES

1. The Depositor may personally deliver the Goods to the Company's storage facility or arrange for their delivery through an authorized representative or carrier approved by the Depositor.

2. Where the Depositor requests SKN to receive, collect, transport, package, load, unload, relocate or place the Goods into storage, the Depositor shall pay for the applicable labour, logistics and handling charges prescribed by SKN.

i. Any other handling or logistics service requested by the Depositor and accepted by SKN.

4. Where applicable, SKN shall conduct a preliminary inspection of the Goods within twenty-four (24) hours after confirmation of payment to determine their apparent condition, suitability for storage and compliance with this Agreement.

Such inspection shall be solely for operational purposes and shall not constitute:
a. an appraisal of the value of the Goods;
b. certification of the quality, authenticity or condition of the Goods;
c. acceptance of liability for any concealed defect, damage or deterioration; or
d. a warranty that the Goods are fit for storage.

5. The Depositor shall be responsible for ensuring that the Goods are properly packaged, labelled and prepared for storage.

6. ACCEPTABLE GOODS

1. SKN may accept for storage any goods which, in its reasonable opinion, are suitable for storage within its facilities and are not prohibited by this Agreement or applicable law.

8. CONCEALED, UNDECLARED OR UNAUTHORIZED GOODS

1. The Depositor shall disclose the true nature, quantity and characteristics of all Goods delivered for storage. The concealment, misdescription or deliberate non-disclosure of any material fact relating to the Goods shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

2. Where SKN reasonably discovers or suspects that any Goods have been concealed, misdeclared or brought into storage in violation of this Agreement, SKN may, without prejudice to any other right or remedy available under this Agreement or applicable law: a. inspect the Goods; b. isolate or remove the Goods from storage; c. refuse continued storage of the Goods; d. seize or retain possession of the Goods where authorised by law or reasonably necessary to protect persons or property; e. require the immediate removal of the Goods by the Depositor; f. impose such administrative charges as may reasonably arise from the handling, inspection,

9. FRAUDULENT DECLARATION AND MISREPRESENTATION

1. The Depositor shall accurately declare all information relating to the Goods, including their description, quantity, condition and estimated market value.

Every declaration made under this Agreement shall be complete, honest and made in good faith.

2. a. The Depositor warrants that any value declared for the Goods represents their fair and reasonable market value as at the date of storage.
b. Where SKN establishes that the declared value has been knowingly, fraudulently or recklessly exaggerated by more than ₦5,000 (Five Thousand Naira) or two per cent (2%) of the actual market value, whichever is greater, such declaration shall be deemed fraudulent and shall be void for all purposes under this Agreement.

3. Where a fraudulent declaration or material misrepresentation is established, SKN shall, without prejudice to any other remedy available under this Agreement or applicable law, be entitled to:
a. Reject or terminate the storage of the affected Goods;
b. Deny any claim based upon the fraudulent declaration;
c. Report the matter to the appropriate law enforcement or regulatory authorities where necessary; and d. Pursue any civil or criminal remedy available under applicable law.

4. SKN shall not be liable for any loss of, or damage to, Goods where such loss or damage arises from or is connected with any fraudulent declaration, concealment or material misrepresentation made by the Depositor.

5. The Depositor shall indemnify and keep indemnified SKN, its managers, officers, employees and agents against all claims, liabilities, losses, damages, fines, penalties, legal fees and other expenses arising directly or indirectly from any fraudulent declaration, concealment, false representation or breach of the warranties contained in this Agreement.

6. The obligations contained in Clause 9 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement to the extent necessary to protect and enforce the rights and remedies of SKN arising from any fraudulent act, concealment or misrepresentation committed during the subsistence of this Agreement.

10. CUSTODY AND MOVEMENT OF GOODS

1. SKN reserves the right, at its own expense, to transfer the Goods from the warehouse or storage facility in which they are stored to another warehouse or storage facility owned, operated or designated by SKN where such transfer is reasonably required for operational efficiency, security, maintenance, safety, business continuity or any other legitimate business purpose.

2. SKN may, at any time and without prior notice, relocate the Goods from one storage location to another within the same warehouse or between storage locations under its control where such relocation is reasonably necessary for:

a. warehouse management; b. operational efficiency; c. inventory control; d. maintenance or repairs; e. security; f. health and safety requirements; or g. compliance with any applicable law or regulatory requirement.

Such internal relocation shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement and shall not attract any additional storage charge unless the relocation is undertaken at the specific request of the Depositor.

3. Where the Depositor elects to collect the Goods before the proposed transfer between warehouses takes effect, no storage charges shall accrue in respect of any unexpired portion of the prepaid storage period from the date the Goods are released.

11. TRANSFER OF GOODS BY THE DEPOSITOR

1. Any request by the Depositor to transfer ownership, custody, possession or responsibility for the Goods to another person shall be made in writing and shall not become effective unless and until it has been expressly accepted by SKN.

SKN shall be entitled to rely upon the written instructions received from the Depositor and shall not be under any obligation to investigate the authority or capacity of any person named therein unless the circumstances reasonably require otherwise.

2. The Depositor shall remain liable for all storage charges, handling fees and every other amount accrued under this Agreement until the requested transfer has been completed and recorded by SKN.

3. Where the requested transfer requires the Goods to be retrieved, inspected, repackaged, rehandled, transported or otherwise physically manipulated, the Depositor shall pay all applicable labour, handling, transportation and administrative charges before the transfer is effected.

SKN may refuse to process any transfer request until all outstanding charges have been paid in full.

12. DELIVERY AND RELEASE OF GOODS

1. Before releasing the Goods, SKN may require the production of such identification, authorization, documentation or other evidence as it reasonably considers necessary to verify the identity and authority of the person requesting delivery. SKN may refuse delivery where it is not reasonably satisfied as to the identity or authority of the person requesting release of the Goods.

2. The Depositor shall provide SKN with reasonable prior notice of any intended collection or delivery of the Goods to enable SKN to retrieve, inspect and prepare the Goods for release.

3. SKN shall not be obliged to release any Goods while any storage charges, labour charges, transportation costs, administrative fees or any other sums remain outstanding under this Agreement.

4. Where the original negotiable warehouse receipt has been lost, destroyed or cannot be produced, SKN shall not be obliged to release the Goods except:
a. upon the provision of such indemnity, security or other assurance as SKN may reasonably require and as may be permitted by applicable law.

5. SKN shall not be liable for any delay in releasing or delivering the Goods where such delay arises from:
a. the Depositor's failure to provide proper instructions or documentation;
b. the existence of outstanding charges;
c. legal restrictions, court orders or governmental directives;
d. Force Majeure; or e. any circumstance beyond the reasonable control of SKN.

6. The Depositor or the person receiving the Goods shall inspect the Goods immediately upon delivery.

Unless a written notice of any apparent loss, shortage or damage is given to SKN before the Goods leave the custody of SKN, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered in the condition recorded by SKN at the time of release, without prejudice to any latent defect or damage which could not reasonably have been discovered upon ordinary inspection.

13. LIABILITY OF STORAGE KINGS NG LIMITED

1. SKN shall exercise reasonable care, skill and diligence in the receipt, handling, custody, storage and release of the Goods, consistent with the standard of care expected of a reasonably prudent warehouse operator under similar circumstances.

2. Without prejudice to Clause 13.1, SKN shall not be liable for any loss, damage or deterioration of the Goods arising directly or indirectly from:
a. the inherent nature, latent defect or ordinary deterioration of the Goods;
b. defective, inadequate or improper packaging supplied by the Depositor;
c. rust, corrosion, mould, mildew, evaporation, shrinkage, vermin or infestation not caused by the negligence of SKN; d. acts or omissions of the Depositor or any person acting on the Depositor's behalf; e. inaccurate descriptions, false declarations or non-disclosure relating to the Goods; f. compliance with any lawful order of a court or governmental authority; g. delay in delivery resulting from the Depositor's default or failure to provide proper instructions; or h. any Force Majeure Event as defined in this Agreement.

3. Insurance

Unless expressly agreed otherwise in writing and certain specified conditions have been met, SKN does not insure the Goods against theft, loss, destruction, deterioration or damage.

The procurement or facilitation of insurance by SKN shall not constitute an assumption of liability by SKN beyond that imposed under this Agreement.

4. Depositor's Duty to Mitigate Loss

The Depositor shall take all reasonable steps to minimize any loss arising from damage to, deterioration of or delay in the release of the Goods.

Failure to take reasonable mitigating measures may be taken into account in determining liability. Exacerbation caused by the negligence or delay of the Depositor shall not be imputed on SKN.

5. Force Majeure

SKN shall not be liable for any delay, failure to perform, loss of or damage to the Goods arising directly or indirectly from any event beyond its reasonable control, provided that SKN has exercised reasonable care in safeguarding the Goods.

A Force Majeure Event includes, without limitation: a. acts of God; b. flood, storm, lightning, earthquake, fire, explosion, accidental damage; d. war, invasion, armed conflict, terrorism or threat of terrorism; e. civil unrest, riot, insurrection or public disorder; f. epidemic, pandemic, quarantine restriction or public health emergency; g. governmental actions, legislation, regulation, embargo, import or export restriction, seizure or requisition; h. court orders or legal process; i. strikes, lockouts, industrial disputes or labour shortages; j. interruption of electricity, fuel, utilities, telecommunications or transportation services; k. cyber-attack, system failure or technological disruption beyond the reasonable control of SKN; or l. any other event beyond the reasonable control of SKN which materially affects the performance of its obligations.

7. Notification of Force Majeure
Where reasonably practicable, the Party affected by a Force Majeure Event shall notify the other Party as soon as reasonably possible after becoming aware of the occurrence of the event.

Failure to give immediate notice shall not invalidate reliance upon this Clause where the circumstances reasonably prevented earlier notification.

8. Prolonged Force Majeure
Where a Force Majeure Event continues for a continuous period exceeding sixty (60) days and substantially prevents the performance of this Agreement, either Party may terminate the affected portion of this Agreement by giving written notice to the other Party.

Termination under this Clause shall not affect any right, liability or obligation accrued before the effective date of termination.

10. Preservation of Other Rights
Nothing contained in this Heading shall exclude or restrict any liability which cannot lawfully be excluded under the laws of the Federal Republic of Nigeria. Except as expressly provided herein, every defence, limitation, exemption and protection available to SKN under this Agreement shall remain cumulative and in addition to every right or remedy available under applicable law.

14. DEFAULT, TERMINATION AND ENFORCEMENT

1. The Depositor shall be deemed to be in default under this Agreement where the Depositor:

a. Fails to pay any storage fees, labour charges, administrative charges or any other amount due under this Agreement on the due date;

b. Fails to renew the storage period before its expiration while the Goods remain in the custody of SKN;

c. Abandons the Goods or otherwise fails to remove them upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement;

d. Commits a material breach of any provision of this Agreement and fails to remedy such breach within the period specified this Agreement; or e. Becomes insolvent, enters liquidation, receivership, bankruptcy or any analogous insolvency proceeding which, in the reasonable opinion of SKN, may affect the performance of the Depositor's obligations under this Agreement.

2. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, SKN's Compliant Department shall issue a written demand requiring the Depositor to:

a. Pay all outstanding sums due under this Agreement;

b. Remedy the default where it is capable of being remedied; and c. Remove the Goods, within seven (7) days after service of the notice.

d. Where the Depositor fails to comply with the first notice, SKN shall escalate it to its Legal Department to issue a second and final notice under the Stamp and Seal of a lawyer allowing a further period of seven (7) days for compliance.

3. Where the Depositor fails to comply with both notices, SKN may terminate this Agreement upon the expiration of one (1) month and fourteen (14) days from the date the agreed storage period expired, provided that the default remains unremedied. Termination shall not prejudice any right, remedy or cause of action already accrued in favour of SKN.

4. Any notice issued under this Heading may be served by:

a. Hand delivery; b. registered post; c. courier service; d. email; e. SMS;

f. WhatsApp or any other electronic messaging platform supplied by the Depositor; or g. any other mode of communication permitted under this Agreement.

5. Abandonment of Goods

The Goods shall be deemed abandoned where the Depositor:

a. Fails to renew the storage period; b. fails to pay outstanding charges; c. fails to remove the Goods after receiving the notices required under this Agreement; d. fails to respond to repeated telephone calls, emails or written communications from SKN; or e. remains in default for one (1) month and fourteen (14) days after payment became due without either paying the outstanding indebtedness or entering into a storage renewal arrangement accepted by SKN.

Upon abandonment, SKN shall be entitled to exercise all rights conferred on it by this Agreement without further notice.

6. Contractual Lien

As continuing security for every obligation owed by the Depositor, SKN shall have a first and continuing contractual lien over all Goods in its custody for:
a. Storage Charges; b. Labour Charges; c. Transportation Costs; d. Inspection Charges; e. Administrative Expenses; f. Legal Costs; g. Auction and Disposal Expenses; h. Accrued Interest; i. Penalties; and j. every other amount payable under this Agreement.

The Depositor irrevocably agrees that SKN may enforce its contractual lien to the fullest extent permitted by law and by this agreement with or without first obtaining a court judgment, after SKS's Solicitor's Demand Letter or Notice has been sent and the default stays unremedied.

7. Sale or Disposal of Goods

a. The Goods remain uncollected for one (1) month and fourteen (14) days after the expiration of the agreed storage period; b. the Goods have been abandoned under Clause 14.5; or c. SKN is otherwise entitled to enforce its contractual lien, SKN may, without further notice and acting in good faith:
i. Take possession and control of the Goods; ii. Advertise the Goods for sale; iii. Sell the Goods by public auction or private sale; iv. appoint auctioneers, agents or professional advisers; v. destroy or otherwise dispose of Goods that are worthless, hazardous or incapable of lawful sale; and vi. Execute all documents reasonably necessary to complete the sale or disposal; vii. every sale shall be conducted in a commercially reasonable manner.

8. Perishable or Rapidly Deteriorating Goods

Where SKN reasonably believes that any Goods are:
a. perishable; b. hazardous; c. rapidly deteriorating; or d. likely to decline in value below the amount secured by SKN's lien, SKN may require the Depositor to remove the Goods within such shorter period as SKN reasonably specifies. Where the Depositor fails to comply, SKN may immediately sell or otherwise dispose of the Goods without incurring liability, provided it acts in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner.

9. Application of Sale Proceeds
The proceeds realized from any sale or disposal shall be applied to offset: the storage costs and incidental charges; sale or auctioneer's fees; administrative expenses; c. legal costs and enforcement expenses;

Any surplus remaining thereafter shall be retained by SKN for thirty (30) days pending collection by the Depositor or any person lawfully entitled thereto.

Where the surplus remains unclaimed after the expiration of that period, SKN may apply the same towards administrative and handling expenses or otherwise deal with it in accordance with applicable law.

10. Outstanding Indebtedness
Where the proceeds of sale are insufficient to discharge the Depositor's indebtedness, the Depositor shall remain liable for the outstanding balance, which shall remain immediately due and payable notwithstanding the sale or disposal of the Goods.

11. Effect of Sale or Disposal
Upon the sale or disposal of the Goods under this Agreement:
a. Every right, title and interest of the Depositor in the Goods shall permanently cease; b. SKN shall be fully discharged from every obligation relating to the Goods; c. the purchaser shall acquire good title to the Goods free from every claim or encumbrance; and d. the Depositor irrevocably waives every claim against SKN arising from the sale or disposal of the Goods, except where such sale or disposal is proved to have resulted from the bad faith, fraud, wilful misconduct or gross negligence of SKN.

12. Cumulative Remedies
The rights and remedies conferred upon SKN under this Part are cumulative and shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, any right, remedy or security available under this Agreement or under the applicable laws of the Federal Republic of Nigeria.

The exercise of any one remedy shall not preclude the subsequent or concurrent exercise of any other remedy available to SKN under this agreement.

15. ADMINISTRATION

1. Any notice, demand, request, approval, consent or other communication required or permitted to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and may be served by any of the following means: a. personal delivery; b. registered post; c. reputable courier service; d. electronic mail (email); e. Short Message Service (SMS); f. WhatsApp or any other electronic messaging platform designated by either Party; or g. any other written or electronic means of communication subsequently agreed by the Parties.

2. The Depositor shall provide their current verified residential, business, postal and electronic contact details for the purpose of receiving notices under this Agreement.

A Party may change its address or contact details by giving written notice to the other Party, and such change shall take effect upon receipt of the notice or on such later date as may be specified therein.

4. The Parties acknowledge and agree that notices transmitted electronically shall have the same legal force and effect as notices delivered by hand or post.

5. Failure to Update Contact Information
Where a Party fails to notify the other Party of any change to its contact details, every notice sent to the last address or contact details previously supplied shall be deemed to have been validly served.

16. Confidentiality
1. For the purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" means every non-public or proprietary information disclosed by one Party to the other, whether orally, electronically, visually or in writing, including information relating to:
a. business operations; b. warehousing procedures; c. pricing and commercial terms; d. customers and suppliers; e. inventories; f. financial information; g. security arrangements; h. trade secrets; i. technical information; and j. every other information which by its nature or the circumstances of its disclosure ought reasonably to be regarded as confidential.
2. Each Party shall keep strictly confidential all Confidential Information received from the other Party and shall not, without the prior written consent of the disclosing Party: a. disclose such Confidential Information to any third party;
b. reproduce, copy or otherwise disseminate such information;
c. use such information for any purpose other than the performance, administration or enforcement of this Agreement.

Each Party shall ensure that its directors, managers, officers, employees, agents, consultants and contractors who have access to Confidential Information comply with the obligations contained in this Clause.

4. Each Party shall exercise at least the same degree of care in protecting the Confidential Information of the other Party as it exercises in protecting its own confidential information, and in any event shall exercise no less than reasonable care.

5. Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, or upon written request by the disclosing Party, the receiving Party shall promptly return or securely destroy all Confidential Information in its possession or control, except where retention is required by law or for the legitimate enforcement of rights arising under this Agreement.

6. The obligations contained in this Clause shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement and shall remain binding upon the Parties for so long as the Confidential Information retains its confidential nature or until disclosure is required by law.

7. The Parties acknowledge that unauthorized disclosure or misuse of Confidential Information may cause irreparable harm for which damages alone may not be an adequate remedy.

Accordingly, the disclosing Party shall be entitled, in addition to any other remedy available at law or under this Agreement, to seek injunctive or other equitable relief to prevent or restrain any actual or threatened breach of this Clause.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND JURISDICTION

1. The Parties shall use their best endeavours to resolve amicably, through good faith negotiations, any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement.

A Party seeking to resolve a dispute shall notify the other Party in writing, stating the nature of the dispute.

2. Where the Parties fail to resolve the dispute within seven (7) days after receipt of the notice, either Party may commence proceedings before a court of competent jurisdiction or, by mutual agreement, refer the dispute to an alternative dispute resolution mechanism.

3. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, and the courts of Nigeria shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, except where the Parties have agreed in writing to resolve the dispute through an alternative dispute resolution process.
